

	Within Country	Conditions for International Political Economy
Fairness in Inputs	Equal Opportunity (Policy Paradigm) Maximizing Social Mobility (Policy Goal) Quality Public Education, Affirmative Action (?) (Policy Proposals)	Fair Trade / Asymmetric Liberalization Converging Productivities, Converging Factor Endowments Infant Industry Protection (?) Special and Differential Treatment (WTO)
Efficiency of Outcomes	Growth Full Factor Employment, Productivity Increases Incentivizing Work, Investment, Productivity Countercyclical Policy	Comparative Advantage Maximizing World GDP Complete Mobility of Factors and Goods
Equity of Outcomes	“Difference Principle” (Rawls 1971) Greater equality (lower Gini coefficients) over time, increasing GDP Progressive Taxation of Wealth, Consumption	Coordinated Redistribution (Slowly) Converging Post-Tax Rents on Capital, later Labor for given levels of Factor Productivity EU-, OECD-, Worldwide (?) Tax Regime
Sustainability	Limited Discounting of the Future Demographic Stability Preservation of Environment Net Capital Accumulation (Public) Deficits &lt; Investments	Global Financial Stability Moderated Financial Market / Exchange Rate Volatility Balanced Current Accounts (Medium-term) Balanced Capital Accounts (Medium-term) Free-Floating Currencies (?)